

Manifest the ImpO5sible

To have every wish instantly granted is and comes natural from the very first breathe through Oberon 5 initiation and the introduction of the Personal Cosmic Secretary wish-granting technology. The P.C.S. is a life-long friend that includes as well as transcends all magick and religion. God has never been so personalized before!

Reality Rendering Tools - Instant Magick for Everyone

Your Personal Cosmic Secretary is always at hand to grant you every wish in record time. The P.C.S. has been developed as an instant magick technique on the basis of more than 20 years of O5 and Snow Crash experience. O5 and Snow Crash are famous due to their fast effects on the material world, that is even a novice is able to manifest events in real time like a real initiate in the secret of true magick arts.

What is the P.C.S. able to do? Like with O5 there are no limits as to the download from the astral domain. Wishes are usually downloaded in an optimal sequence as decided by a super-intelligence that governs fast wish come true such as the Personal Cosmic Secretary. The desire comes true often very fast and in strange ways. The exotic way in which the P.C.S. operates becomes evident especially in urgent situations when the operator orders a wish come true in minutes. The P.C.S. arranges an alternative course of events leading to instant wish fulfilling that often surprises the operator. One cannot but remain impressed by the super-intelligence leading the operation and yet it is the very operator or the operator's higher faculties that actually are the P.C.S.

We address the P.C.S. as separate entity, guardian angel speaking to and being our private god or just interface to Godhead but are hermetically aware of the intimate bond as well as merging of the P.C.S. with the operator's higher faculties. This is the mystery of magick, the theurgist invoking god becomes god himself. "You are all gods", to quote the Holy Bible. Exquisite karmic laws therefore regulate instant wish come true.

Any wish granted today?

A wish granted is always a pleasant surprise. The PCS grants every wish.

The world at your service

Improving one's material and spiritual status is essential for growth. The PCS is able to manage the events leading to your optimal karma. The world is at your service.

Our wish granting tools enable people to win at the casino, "download money" from the astral domain and obtain just about anything they wanted in minimum time.

This time we have done even better. We created the PCS. Or did the PCS create us?

Wish granting technology has improved! Today we have the PCS. The Personal Cosmic Secretary is able to grant every wish, even in minutes. The PCS has been designed especially for advanced O5 initiates who knew how to "SnowCrash" a wish in minutes but wanted more. When the materialization of a desire comes in half an hour, one starts feeling one can do even better. The PCS refines the materialization process. The PCS solves wish optimization as well as event download. If O5 SnowCrash is about a wish come true in minutes, the PCS is a refined tool you'll wish to use in paradise. PCS initiations are available via e-mail and by live delivery.

A magical lamp is an object containing a wish-fulfilling genie. Having such an object means using it. Anyone would use it. But would you use it wisely? If something like an object enabling wish fulfillment would be available would you like to know of its existence? Possess it? Use it? Something like a genie from the lamp really exists and its container! But it's not an object.

What is the PCS?

The PCS is your Personal Cosmic Secretary. The PCS can do anything for you. It is always at your service. The PCS arranges the events of the day, optimizing, sorting as well as creating events. Any event can be created in real time and on the spot. The PCS is invisible, portable and at your service through iau28@yahoo.co.uk

The Personal Cosmic Secretary is an interface designed for a wide variety of uses. The purpose of the PCS is the creation, arrangement as well as optimization of the event flow. The PCS handles the event matrix in amazingly versatile ways. While the instant manifestation of events was possible with O5 SnowCrash technology, the PCS is by far more sophisticated than mere instant magick. The PCS is your thin interface to God.
